

11 September 1972

Depository Sale Sought

DALLAS (AP) — A private citizens committee was formed today to raise money to buy the Texas School Book Depository and donate it to the city for a school, a park, a memorial or a museum.

The committee also seeks to rescind a city council resolution asking for federal funds to buy the building.

The School Book Depository is the building from which, according to the Warren Commission report, Lee Harvey Oswald fired the shots that killed President John F. Kennedy and wounded Texas Gov. John Connally on Nov. 22, 1963.