Would you do me a great favor and ~~wonvey~~ these news clippings to Hal Verb when you next meet? I'd greatly appreciate the favor. Please ~~ask~~ instruct Hal to return the material within eight days. He can probably give ~~it~~ the clippings to Bob Douthitt next Tuesday. I ~~won't~~ will not be able to attend their next class unfortunately, but Verb can pass the news items around and thus enliven the discussion somewhat.

I don't have time to write anything else except to wish you good health and counsel you against worrying too much about the meeting you had with Jonn Christian. I don't understand why Hal permitted it.

Cordially yours,

Bruce S. Lewis
