Volume I No.

TWENTY-THOUSAND DEMAND TO KNOW TRUTH ABOUT ASSASSINATION

Dateline Los Angeles.....A communication just received from the B Los Angeles Citizens Committee reports that 20,000 citizens have signed a petition demanding a re-investigation of the Kennedy Assassination.

(LNS) Steven Burton of the Los Angeles C.C. I. will go to New Orleans to cover the Clay Shaw trial. Newsletter subscribers will receive special reports in our bulletin.

(ANS) The L.A. C.C. I. reports that Harold Weisberg spoke recently at UCLA and also on radio and television while in Los Angeles.

Dateline New York.....The New York Citizens Committee has just collected over 1,000 signatures calling for a re-investigation of the Kennedy Assassination. According to a dispatch just received, Trent Gough, chairman of the N.Y. C. C. I. has renamed the organization, "Kennedy Assassination Inquiry Committee."

Bay Area Roundup—a regular feature of the Assassination Bulletin

This is the third and latest in our series of newsletters, and the first to be published via our new Assassination Network, meaning simultaneous publication and distribution in Los Angeles, New York, and San Francisco. (News of interest about the Workshop on the Kennedy Assassination at San Francisco State College will appear in the New York and Los Angeles editions but not here, in order to meet deadlines.)
