

Lisa Howard

Suicide? She died 4 Jul 65, empty bottle of sleeping pills found near body.

In November (?) 1963, Lisa Howard acted as liaison to set up meeting between William Atwood (see his book, The Reds and the Blacks) and Castro's aide-de-camp, Maj. René Vallejo, following indication that Castro wanted closer ties with the U.S. Atwood was to have seen JFK on his return from Dallas trip. A day (?) after the assassination Castro announced he was ready to talk, but this was put off by McGeorge Bundy.
