Oswald's Mother To Speak

citron

New York

1/24/64

Marguerite Oswald, mother of the accused presidential assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, will proclaim her son's innocence at a public rally here.

She will address a Town Hall rally sponsored by the left-wing National Guardian February 18.

Mrs. Oswald's attorney, Mark Lane, said she is convinced that her son was in the pay of the CIA. Her suspicions are based, he said, on the fact that when her son was having difficulties in returning from the Soviet Union, to which he had defected, the CIA was able to tell her not to worry, that he would be returning home soon.
