Fort Worth, Tex., Jan. 23 (AP)- Mrs. Marguerite Oswald said today she has sent telegrams to Washington asking the right to cross-examine witnesses appearing before the presidential commission investigating the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

The mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of Kennedy, said Oswald's Russian-born wife, Marina, will be questioned in Washington or here by commission members about the assassination.

"They may be questioning her now," Mrs. Oswald said. "They may come down here to question her."

"I've seen and heard enough to know what's going on around here. I've heard enough of these trumped up charges, and that's why I want her (Marina) cross-examined."

Mrs. Oswald said she sent these night letters yesterday to Chief Justice Earl Warren, who heads the fact-finding commission, and J. Lee Rankin, counsel for the commission:

"Understand you are ready to question my son's wife, Marina. I implore you in the name of justice and our American way of life to let me have a voice in this matter through an attorney for my son, Lee Harvey Oswald. Important all witnesses be cross-examined including his widow."

Mrs. Oswald said she sent a letter to President Johnson which read:

"I have sent night letter to Chief Justice Earl Warren and J. Lee Rankin imploring both in name of justice and our American way of life to let my son, Lee Harvey Oswald, be represented by counsel so that all witnesses including my son's widow will be cross-examined."

New York attorney Mark Lane, retained by Mrs. Oswald last week, said he would confer here with Mrs. Oswald Wednesday (Jan. 29).

Lane said yesterday he and Mrs. Oswald would discuss his defense of her son against the assassination charges.
