WHAT TO SEE IN THE DALLAS AREA

Fair Park: Only ten minutes from downtown Dallas, Fair Park is the focal point for year 'round entertainment, sports and cultural activity. It is the scene of the famous Cotton Bowl games, and the site of the Music Hall, which houses one of the world's great symphony orchestras and a Broadway-calibre season of summer Musicals. It is the home in October each year of the largest State Fair in the nation, attended annually by almost three million people. Its continuous attractions include the Aquarium, Garden Center, Hall of State, Health Museum, Midway, Museum of Fine Arts, and Museum of Natural History.

City Parks, Recreational Areas: White Rock Lake, Bachman's Lake, Burnett Baseball Park, Beckley Center Park, Cedar Crest Municipal Golf Course, Kiest Park, Lake Cliff Park, Lee Park, Marsalis Park and Zoo, Randall Park, Reverchon Park, Samuel Park, Stevens Park Municipal Golf Course, Tenison Municipal Golf Course, and Tietze Park.

Other Points of Special Interest: John Neely Bryan's log cabin, built in 1841; Love Field, world's tenth largest airport; Dallas Public Library, leading public library of the South and Southwest; The new 8.5 million dollar Memorial Auditorium; Southern Methodist University; Southwestern Medical School; the University of Dallas; Dallas Theater Center, designed by the late Frank Lloyd Wright; and "Six Flags Over Texas," in Arlington.
