Harry Gold Held Neurotic In F.B.I. Rosenberg Files

NYTimes

By PETER KIHSS DEC 6 Special to The New York Time

WASHINGTON, Dec. neurotic and hostile personal-reVressed hostility. ity with traits adding up to for the Soviet Union, helped bring about 1951 death sentences for the Rosenbergs and a 30-year prison term for Morton Sobell for conspiracy to peated by the property of the Rosenberg and the sentences for the Rosenbergs and the sentences for the Rosenbergs and the sentences for the Rosenberg and the defense counsel.

Psychiatric reports had been ordered in Philadelphia by Federal Judge James P. Mc-Cranery before he sentenced Mr. Gold Dec. 9, 1950, to 30 years in prison as a spy conspirator with Dr. Klaus Fuchs, the British atomic scientist.

A 1966 effort by Mr. Sobell people was a defense and a lot of the cheller.

sentenced sentenced spirator with Dr. Klaus Fuchs, The British atomic scientist.

A 1966 effort by Mr. Sobell to challenge Mr. Gold's credibility in a bid by Mr. Sobell for a new trial led the Federal Bureau of Investigation in New York to ask whether Mr. Gold has ever undergone psychiatric examination, and an F.B.I from Philadelphic 8, 1966

pathic tendencies," ladelphia agents said.

5-the revolutionary with exagger-Harry Gold was described as a ated ego and oversensitivity,

"His early history with eco-"imbalance" in a court-ordered nomic difficulties and racial psychiatric report six months prejudices, poor religious inbefore his testimony in the trial fluence and a mother with early of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg. radical political ideas—all have The testimony of Mr. Gold, a added to his imbalance.

"His fanatic drive when he or the Scring about 15ences for the Rosen.

1 30-year prison term
Morton Sobell for conspiracy to commit espionage.

A summer of the psychiatric report turned up today among 29,000 pages of Federal Bureau of Investigation files released on petition of Michael and Robert Meeropol, the Rosenbergs' sons, who hope to demonstrate their parents' innocence.

Mr. Gold testified in March that he had obtained that he had obtained that he had obtained ther major but he by a hope to avoid possible perjury charges for a false anti-Communist oath as a defense engineer.

A July 1, 1952, New York randum quoted a continuous of the served near induce him to give protestations of innocence.

Unlike the Rosenbergs, Mr. Sobell did not testify at his trial. He would have faced problems explaining an alleged "flight to Mexico," which he said in a recent autobiography had been motivated in part by a hope to avoid possible perjury charges for a false anti-Communist oath as a defense engineer.

A July 1, 1952, New York randum quoted a continuous of the served near induce him to give protestations of innocence.

Unlike the Rosenbergs, Mr. Sobell did not testify at his trial. He would have faced problems explaining an alleged "flight to Mexico," which he said in a recent autobiography had been motivated in part by a hope to avoid possible perjury charges for a false anti-Communist oath as a defense engineer.

A July 1, 1952, New York randum quoted a continuous conti

Bureau of Investigation in New York to ask whether Mr. Gold has ever undergone psychiatric examination, and an F.B.I. reply from Philadelphia dated July 8, 1966, noted two 1950 tests.

Eummary of Findings

They were reported in the file of the Federal court probation officer in Philadelphia.

One, by a five-member team, concluded that "Gold showed no latent or potential psycholar tendencies." the Phi
But the manual content into inton:

"During recent conversation [name blanked out] had with [apparently the informant] and the reading f the letters of Mrs. Sobell to her husband, it has become quite evident that Sobell would like to cooperate with the Government but is being prevented from doing so because of the influence his aife exercises over any decision in this matter."

'Arrogant' and 'Stubborn'

ladelphia agents said.

The other summarized the findings of Dr. Samuel Leopold, director of the Neuropsychiatric Division of the Philadelphia Municipal Court, as follows: "The report indicated the Gold has above-normal mentality. He is not insane but shows An ERI response from New Landing Courts and Courts

Gold has above-normal mentality. He is not insane but shows a neurotic personality characterized by extreme orderlines and compulsions. He has poor relationship to the world, dominated by resentful ideas and with immature psychosexual development.

"This personality is present in the mystic, the fanatic and shows a neurotic personality is present in the mystic, the fanatic and sions.

"In the specific personality is present in the mystic, the fanatic and sions.

"In the specific personality is present in the mystic, the fanatic and sions.

"In the specific personality is present in the mystic, the fanatic and sions.

"In the specific personality is present in the mystic, the fanatic and sions.