> It was Ruby's 53rd birthday. Foreman, 61, the most famous criminal lawyer in Texas, resigned in a friendly three-page letter which Sheriff Bill Decker personally de-hired Foreman. Foreman made it plain that his chief difficulties were with Mrs. Grant and Stanley Kaufman, a civil attorney and family friend of the Rubys.

"If he says I have curtailed his activities, he's lying," Kaufman said. "If Ruby's brothers, Sam, Mr. Foreman cannot con-

Of the attorney, Foreman

"Attorney Kaufman . . thinks criminal cases should be tried as he tries civil cases. I do not agree with his opinion.

"Both attorney Kaufman and Mrs. Grant believe that your attorney should not answer questions of the news media except with no comment.' I do not agree with this, especially in your case."
