Judge Asks DA's Stand On Guardian for Ruby

Probate Judge F. W. Bartlett Written by Edward Linn, the Jr. has asked Dist. Atty Henry article praised the prosecution Wade what position his office will staff which included Wade, Bowie take in the Jack Ruby guardian- and Assistant Dist. Attys. William ship case.

appoint a guardian to manage Belli. Ruby's business affairs.

If Wade does not contest the Ruby at an Aug. 6 hearing.

J. Orvis joined Wade and Judge own hands." Bowie, C. M. Turlington and John take it ended, Wade replied "no com- come widely accepted as the best I ment" to all questions.

Prosecutors said earlier they had." did not object to the appointment Linn also wrote: of someone to handle Ruby's financial affairs. But they said they gressed, it became increasingly would be concerned over any court evident that, while Bill Alexander I finding that Ruby is mentally ill did not have Belli's maneuver plea for a new trial.

Meanwhile, the Saturday Eve-ning Post published a lengthy ar-in this courtroom, on that case ticle about the murder trial which the best and most solid lawyer we brought Ruby the death penalty. were watching."

F. Alexander and Frank Watts. The officials conferred for al-But it criticized Judge Joe B. most an hour about legal prob-Brown, who presided during the

lems involved in a request by de- trial, and questioned strategy of fense lawyers that Judge Bartlett chief defense attorney Melvin Referring to Wade, Linn wrote: "He is an easy-going man, but request, Judge Bartlett said, he he is also persistent and thorough will appoint a lawyer to represent —and, if he believes one thing Duby at an Aug 6 hearing. more than anything else in the Assistant Dist. Attys. A. D. Jim world, it is that men should not

> "The article said Wade has "bedistrict attorney Dallas has ever since this could affect the slayer's ability in interrogation and plea for a new trial. couldn't approach Belli in sheer