

AP

Oct. 3, 1964, 838pcs/Ruby, by Peggy Simpson, Dallas

.....However, he is suspicious and wary, particularly of his own attorneys. Tonahill said the defense psychiatrist calls Ruby's reaction typical of a "psychotic depressive paranoid. He has strong suicidal tendencies and will commit suicide if he can...he is wary of his own attorneys and overly fond of the prosecuting attorneys who want to see him executed."..... (defense psychiatrist not identified).