

Two More Lawyers Ask To Quit Ruby

Dallas

Jack Ruby's chief defense counsel and an appeals expert asked District Judge Joe B. Brown yesterday to let them step out of the case.

Clayton Fowler, head of Ruby's defense team since last June, and Emmett Col-
Jr., filed motions to withdraw from the case.

The motion suggested that the judge appoint new lawyers to carry out legal appeals for Ruby, under the death sentence for killing accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

In requesting their release, the two lawyers noted that Ruby's sister, Mrs. Eva Grant, last week asked the court that all lawyers on the case, except Phil Burleson, be removed. At least eight sentenced Ruby at one time or be removed. At least eight other lawyers have represented Ruby at one time or another since last year.
