

Dallas Times-Herald breaks a story about an unnamed building contractor who found Ruby's notebook in a false ceiling in a building worth $10,000 which a tall, well-spoken man tried to buy for $50,000, apparently knowing it was there. Book contained a notation: "Opening for Shaw." Story appears phoney and diversionary.

AP

(filed gar)

31dec68

(same story appears in part, SF Chronicle 1jan69)