

Ex-C.I.A. Member, Missing From Hospital, Found Dead

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Dec. 27 (UPI) — Peter Jaremko, 48 years old, of Springfield, a former member of the Central Intelligence Agency, was found dead yesterday in Look Park.

Authorities said he had been missing from the Veterans Administration hospital in Leeds since Saturday.

Medical Examiner Thomas F. Corridan said death had been caused by exposure.

Mr. Jaremko, who was with the intelligence agency from 1949 to 1953, served as official interpreter at the four-power conferences in Berlin at the close of World War II. During the war he was with naval intelligence.

He is a former sales representative of Science-Electronics, Inc., of Cambridge.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Jane Murdock Jaremko, of Washington; his mother, Mrs. Anna Jaremko of Springfield; a sister, and two daughters.

A funeral service will be held Friday in Ludlow.
