C.I.A. Discloses It Trained Police From 12 Agencies

NYTimes By DAVID BURNHAM

Central The the handling of explosives, the explosives detection of wiretaps and the niques." organization of intelligence files.

The acknowledgment that the C.I.A. has trained policemen Mr. Maury's letter and an from approximately 12 domestic police agencies in the last two years was made by John M. Maury, legislative counsel for the C.I.A., in a letter to Representative Edward I. Koch.

Mr. Koch, a Manhattan Democrat, said that the training activities of the C.I.A. violated the existing law and should be investigated by Congress. He called the matter to the attention of Representative Chet Holifield, Democrat of California, chairman of the House Government Operations Committee, and Senator Sam J. Ervin, Jr., Democrat of North Carolina, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights.

Mr. Koch on . Dec. 28 had asked Richard Helms, the recently retired Director of Central Intelligence, about the agency's domestic activities after it was disclosed that 14 New York policemen had been trained in the handling of political intelligence files last September.

Responding to Mr. Koch's in-quiry, the C.I.A.'s legislative counsel wrote on Jan. 29 that fewer than 50 policemen, "from a total of about a dozen city and county police forces, have received some kind of agency briefing in the past two years."

The counsel, Mr. Maury, said that the training sessions "have

6 1973

Intelligence covered a variety of subjects Agency has acknowledged train- such as the procedures for the ing policemen from about a processing, analyzing, filing of dozen city and county police information, security devices forces in the United States on and procedures, and metal and detection tech-

> In a statement prepared for insertion in today's Congressional Record, based on both earlier telephone conversation, Mr. Koch described the train-

Continued on Page 25, Column J

C.I.A. Discloses It Trained Men From 12 U.S. Police Agencies

Continued From Page 1, Col. 2

Maury had explained that did make them available to the minimal." In his request to Mr. Holi-field for an investigation by the House Government Operations Committee, Mr. Koch said that "since the C.I.A. is barred by statute from participating in law-enforcement activities in the United States, I consider their disregard of the law most their disregard of the law most serious."

serious." Mr. Maury, however, in his letter to Representative Koch, said that "we [the C.I.A.] do not consider that the activities in question violate the letter or the spirit" of the law. The Na-tional Security Act of 1947, which authorizes the establish-ment of the C.I.A., provides that "the agency shall have no police, subpoena, law-enforce-ment or internal-security func-tions." Mr. Koch in his statement tions." Mr. Koch, in his statement for The Congressional Record, said that the C.I.A. had provid-ed him with the names of some of the jurisdictions whose po-licemen had been trained but asked him "to keep the specific locations confidential because the agency pledged this con-fidentiality to those police de-partments."

Though Mr. Koch said the ing as involving "the handling even more incumbent that the and foreign C.I.A. be prohibited from any weapons, as well as audio con- training of this nature," he did The Representative said Mr. statement. Mr. Koch, however, not disclose the locations in his

Maury had explained that "audio control measure tech-niques" involved the detection of wiretaps and bugs "in which foreign interests are involved," "No Cost to Recipients" Mr. Maury said that the C.I.A. "briefings have been pro-vided at no cost to the recipi-ents." He added, "Since they have been accomplished merely have been accomplished merely by making available, insofar as their own duties permit, quali-fied agency experts and instruc-tors, the cost to the agency is minimal."