C.I.A. Will Curb Training It Provides Police Forces

NYTimes

MAR 6 1973 By DAVID BURNHAM The new director of Central these activities violated the Instelligence has informed Con- law.

gress that the agency has de- Mr. Schlesinger's brief letter cided to curb the training it did not attempt to define "the has been providing local police most compelling circumstances' departments in the United that would lead him to autho-States.

rize the agency to provide a has been providing local police departments in the United States. The director, James R. Schle-singer, announced the new pol-icy in a letter to Representative Chet. Holifield, Democrat of California, who is chairman of the House Government Oper-ations Committee. "In keeping with the sensi-tivity of this matter I have directed that such [training] activities be undertaken in the future only in the most com-pelling circumstances and with my personal approval," Mr. Schlesinger wrote. The Central Intelligence Agency acknowledged last fusities came after Representative to detect explosives and wire-taps, conduct surveillance of individuals and maintain intel-ligence files. The acknowledgement of the domestic police training activ-tites came after Representative Edward Koch, Democrat of New York, wrote the C.I.A. Isat be c.28 questioning whether suc training did not violate the 10cal agencies. "The request of the local agencies." The request of the local agencies. "The request of the local agencies." The request of the local agencies. "There may boile cores about techniques to detect explosives and wire-fugence files. The acknowledgement of the domestic police training watter forcement powers or internal security functions." In disclosing the C.I.A. Isat ment tht it had trained domes-tic police, subpoena, law en-forcement powers or internal-security functions." In disclosing the C.I.A.'s statement the very states, "The agency shall have have had some requests routed through the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration," he subtor in the New York Times called upon Mr. Holifield's con-mittee and the Senate Judiciary two had been given training in two had been given training in the handling and processing of intelligence information.