

Vital Posts Open Under President

Washington, Dec. 10 - President Nixon has filled his second-term Cabinet ... but there are still significant decisions to be made about people and positions below the Cabinet level.

Whether the [FBI and the CIA] will have new directors is still unresolved publicly, and still the object of much speculation.

And L. Patrick Gray 3d, who has been the F.B.I.'s acting director since J. Edgar Hoover's death, has reportedly been in disfavor since he ordered F.B.I. agents to shoot out the tires of a hijacked plane.
