

Nixon F.B.I. Choice 'Soon'

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP) —President Nixon has not decided on a permanent director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation but will do so relatively soon, the White House said Tuesday. Ronald L. Zeigler, White House press secretary, responding to questions, said the acting director L. Patrick Gray 3d "has been doing a very good job" since the death of J. Edgar Hoover.