

... On another matter, [Attorney General John N.] Mitchell said he hoped that J. Edgar Hoover would continue to serve as director of the [FBI]. Mr. Hoover will be 75 years old in January, and there has been some speculation that he might resign.

(Complete clipping filed Nixon Administration.)