House Inquiry Into Killing Of Kennedys and King Due

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 (AP)—Speaker Carl Albert said today that he expected the House to investigate the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy, the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and Senator Robert F. Kennedy.

Mr. Albert told reporters that he had discussed with Representative Ray Madden, Democrat of Indiana, chairman of the House Rules Committee, the establishment of a special study committee. The Rules Committee is expected to act tomorrow.

Interest in a long dormant pending resolution for a House investigation at least into President Kennedy's death was revived by members of the Congressional Black Caucus. They persuaded the leadership, it was understood, to back the proposal for an investigating committee and to broaden its mandate to include the King case.

Mrs. Coretta King, widow of the civil rights leader, was reported to be pressing for a further inquiry on the basis of alleged new information.

"It is reaching the point where there is so much interest that Congress will probably have to do something about it," Mr. Albert said.

Sources said that there would probably be a 12-member committee. It would report before the present Congress expires in January and would not be expected to conduct a full inquiry by then. But if its report indicated enough justification, the committee would be recreated for the two-year life of the new Congress.
