

Lewdness ChargeGeneral Arrested*Dallas

Former Army Major General Edwin A. Walker, once a leader of ultra-conservative causes, has been arrested on a second complaint of public lewdness in nine months, park police said yesterday.

The police arrest report said Walker, 67, was arrested by a park patrol officer at a men's restroom in a city park on Tuesday. Walker was charged with public lewdness, a misdemeanor.

The previous lewdness charge, also made by the Dallas Park Department, was June 23, 1976.
