

NEWS CABLE BULLETIN

8 JULY 1964

'Third Life' For Accused Assassin?

FORT WORTH (UPI)—
Mrs. Marguerite Oswald prepared to testify before the Warren Commission Monday and tell about a "third life" that affected her accused assassin son, Lee Harvey Oswald.

"I have some trump cards," she said. "I will tell the commission about Lee's life, my life, and a third life."

"Don't ask me any more questions," she said when pressed about the "third life."

Mrs. Oswald, 56, said she was "thrilled to death to have finally broken through to testify in Washington before the presidential commission investigating the assassination last Nov. 22 in Dallas.

"It was a real fight," she said.

She said telegrams were sent to Chief Justice Earl Warren and President Lyndon B. Johnson requesting to be heard. She also credited numerous statements to news media for pressing her demands.

Mrs. Oswald, not convinced her son shot the President, wanted the chance to defend him before the commission. She said only "circumstantial evidence" existed against Oswald.