

B121

Washington, May 6 (AP)- The Warren commission spent this mornin talking to Alan Belmont, an assistant to FBI chief J. Edgar Hoover, about FBI procedures in investigating the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Members of the commission, created for an over-all inquiry into the crime, declined to disclose any of the testimony.

Yesterday they talked to three men connected with the investigation of Lee Harvey Oswald carried out by the FBI before Kennedy was killed last Nov. 22 in Dallas.

...The commission finished for the day without naming any futher ~~wit~~ witnesses.

gm1250pcs