

A Rift in Oswald Probe

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — There is some sentiment on the Warren Commission against flatly deciding at this time that Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone in planning and carrying out the assassination of John F. Kennedy, it was learned yesterday.

To complete the investigation ordered by President Johnson the commission must still hear a number of witnesses. It is not expected to wind up the inquiry before late June.

A commission spokesman said yesterday the final report would dispel all speculation that the assassination might have had its roots in a political conspiracy. But today sources said there was some feeling on the seven-member commission that this had not been proven beyond all doubt, raising a possibility that the final report might not be unanimous.

The sources also said that 50 agents still are busy seeking any shred of evidence that might have been overlooked.

Earlier yesterday, the commission announced a list of witnesses to be called June 4 through June 16—one of them Secretary of State Dean Rusk. It also will recall Oswald's Russian-born widow.

The commission will hear from what is expected to be its last group of witnesses starting Thursday.

On Monday, Henry Wade, the Dallas district attorney who prosecuted Oswald's accused killer, Jack Ruby, will testify. He will be questioned about events surrounding the arrest and death of Oswald.

State Department officials will appear before the commission on Tuesday, followed by Rusk on Wednesday.
