

Jackie Talks to Warren Commission

Washington

The Warren Commission, just about to wind up its six-month-long job of investigating President John F. Kennedy's assassination, took testimony yesterday from his widow.

The Commission reported

it went to the home of Jacqueline Kennedy, who was with her husband in the limousine at Dallas, Texas, when he was shot November 22. There was no indication of the nature of her testimony.

Associated Press