DALLAS, TEX., JULY 2 (AP)-AGENTS OF THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, ACTING ON ORDERS FROM THE WARREN COMMISSION, TODAY BEGAN THEIR INVESTIGATION OF WHERE THE DALLAS NEWS OBTAINED MATERIAL PUBLISHED LAST WEEKEND ABOUT LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MANNING C. CLEMENTS AND JAMES WOOD VISITED THE DALLAS NEWS NEWSROOM FOR ABOUT 30 MINUTES TODAY TO QUESTION PUBLISHER E.M. "TED" DEALEY, PRESIDENT JOE M. DEALEY AND REPORTERS CARL FREUND AND HUGH AYNESWORTH.

THE SPECIAL AGENTS WERE PRIMARILY INTERESTED IN FINDING OUT THE SOURCE OF THE CONTROVERSIAL INFORMATION--WHICH THE WARREN COMMISSION HAS REPEATEDLY PROMISED TO MAKE PUBLIC--AND TO DETERMINE IF THE NEWS PLANNED TO PRINT MORE OF THE SAME.

LAST SATURDAY, THE NEWS PRINTED EXCLUSIVELY WHAT THE NEWSPAPER SAID WENT ON IN THE DISCUSSIONS BETWEEN JACK RUBY AND CHIEF JUSTICE EARL WARREN A FEW DAYS BEFORE IN RUBY'S JAIL CELL AND REVEALED FOR THE FIRST TIME OSWALD'S PERSONAL DIARY COVERING THE 2 1/2 YEARS HE SPENT BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN.

MEMBERS OF THE WARREN COMMISSION--NOW IN THEIR EIGHTH MONTH OF SIFTING FACTS ABOUT THE ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT HERE LAST NOV. 22--MONDAY SAID THEY WERE "DISTURBED" ABOUT THE NEWS' REPORTING AND ORDERED THE FBI INTO ACTION.
