Washington, May 29 (AP)- The Warren Commission report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy has been a money-maker for the government printing office.

A report released to Congress Friday said sales had provided a net profit of $191,400.

The printing office said it has sold 142,673 copies of the report and 1,491 26-volume sets of testimony taken by the commission pb255aed
