

WR

Aid to Warren Group

By CATHERINE MACKIN

Examiner Correspondent

WASHINGTON — The independent agencies, four congressional committees and its staff of 27, led by a number of state agencies. U.S. Chief Justice Earl Warren, drew on the re-received by the commission sources of almost every major agency of government prepared by the FBI, summarizing the bureau's investigation of the assassination. The investigation immediately following the assassination.

It heard testimony from 552 witnesses; sifted through The Secret Service voluminous FBI reports supplied a detailed account which had entailed some 25,000 interviews, and re-taken before President Kennedy in explicit detail the president's trip to Dallas and actions of federal agencies, a summary of the events of including the FBI, Secret Nov. 22 as seen by Secret Service, Treasury Department agents. In its investigation, State Department and Central Intelligence Agency, also spanning 10 months, the Secret Service

The commission also conducted some 1,550 inter-called for information on 10 views and submitted to the major departments of the commission 800 reports, 4,000 pages in length.