

Kenneth Auchincloss,
associate editor,
Newsweek, p. 32
filed Books, Lane

WC - Warren resignation

15 Aug 66

"President Lyndon Johnson himself was never called to testify [before Warren Commission]. A list of questions for him was in fact prepared and submitted to Johnson's confidant Abe Fortas (then a Washington lawyer, now a U.S. Supreme Court Justice). Fortas returned a veto of the idea; Warren, to the staff's dismay, agreed."