Letters To The Editor

September 9, 1969

Dear Mr. Jones,

. . . I want to thank you for the privilege of reading your paper and, through it, keeping informed on developments ignored and/or buried in most of the press. Papers such as yours are becoming a rarity, and I hope the people of Midlothian continue to appreciate their good fortune in having it.

Dear Mr. Jones

Noticing that there has been no editorial mention recently of the circumstances pertaining to the John F. Kenedy assassination, I have been curious as to how much credence you give to the recent expose of Jim Garrison. I would value your opinion on this matter, most highly..

Enjoyed your editorial "Turned On," and was most pleased that you reported on their good-behavior, politeness, and rather incredible (by the standards of our generation) honesty. I can appreciate the up-tight feelings of the younger generation when they view the blatant hypocrisy that confronts them on every side from their elders. I am forty-five and, generally speaking, not particularly proud of my peers.

Our hope for the future lies with these young people, and from what I have observed throughout the country, I feel very confident that they will effect some much needed changes in our society, providing there is anything left for them on this planet after our generation is finished with it.

From recent issues of your paper I see that you are experiencing the results of some of our present-day "do unto others before they do unto you" attitudes . . . the cut-throat tactics of our business world!

If you might have time for a short note, I would appreciate your capsulized views on the Jim Garrison "expose."

Most sincerely,
Bob Williams

PS—I, and numerous of my friends, have thoroughly enjoyed your FORGIVE MY GRIEF, I and II.
