All Quiet, Except Kennedy Kitchen

together once again for the annual reunion.

ahead just as they would have if the president were alive.

Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy and will stay there.

The kitchen at the home of old Wednesday, and 3 year old quiet except for the activities clude the ambassador and his Joseph P. Kennedy bustled with John, were scheduled to arrive of the former ambassador's wife, Rose; Jacqueline, Stephen Wednesday as the family drew Thursday in time for the tradi- Irish cook, elderly Matilde and Jean Smith, Robert and held the half staffed flag on The Kennedys went bravely the late president's home as stiff as if it were starched Mrs. Kennedy and the children

Hyannis Port, Mass. - UPI-her children, Caroline, 6 years | The Kennedy compound was | The adults probably will in-Dowd, a woman who considers Ethel Kennedy, Peter and Pat A breeze off Nantucket sound the kitchen her personal do-Lawford, Sargent and Eunice main. She was in charge of the Shriver and Senator and Mrs. preparations.

> A second huge turkey was delivered to the house Wednes-slain president took his cusday, indicating that most of the tomary ride in the countryside clan will be present. Should all this morning. His wife attended of the children arrive, there the 7 a.m. mass in St. Francis would be about 30 persons.

Edward M. Kennedy.

The 75 year old father of the Xavier church.