

Calls Threatened JFK During Houston Visit

HOUSTON (UPI) — Police Chief Secret Service. Mr. Kennedy visited Houston Thursday night before going to Dallas, where he was killed.

H. Buddy McGill said police received four telephone calls threatening President Kennedy's life while he visited here.

One of the callers, a woman, McGill said, told him: "The President should wear his bullet proof vest."

McGill said Friday officers could not trace the calls and turned the information over to the
