

4? DEC 71

12/13 Dear Jenifer, Last night Bud was here and we went out for supper. Lil put on the Chinese outfit I got her three years ago, which reminded us that we had never told you the size trousers we had asked you to get. Thus reminded, I have just measured her. She apparently though there might be some confusion between Chinese and our sizes, and I am concerned that all of her be accomodated, which will adcount for the extra measurement:

- Waist 34
- Hips 43
- Inseam 26-28 (not longer) (But of cours this can be altered here)
- Paunch 41.

There is no rush, and we surely hope you will not burden yourself or SHE (or is it HER?) during the Xmas rush. Although Lil is reluctant to cause you any trouble or spend any money, she is quite comfortable in these pants and I do want her to have another pair. So, whenever it is not too much trouble for you, whenever you are again near Lili's, we much appreciate it, and we do not want you not to tell us what they cost, please.

On another subject, when I took the feebee-fixed VOM cassette machine back again for the factory to try and unfeebeeize it again, I found that the new Sony tapes with audio sensor are now available here. I also learned that there is a new kind, TDK, more costly and supposedly higher fi. When you speak to your expert again, would you please ask if they represent any advantage in voice only? I now have an adequate supply and will use them first, but it would be good to know for the future. As of now, I do not expect to go out investigating again until at least after the end of the tax season, for Lil will depend on me for transportation and we so need that slight income.

If I didn't tell you, I did a real stupid thing in packing for this recent trip. I forgot the Aiwa pickup, which fits the TC-40, taking the VOM, which doesn't fit the Sony by mistake. Thus I had to depend on the undependable and with an important phone conversation, I got nothing. I had taken the VOM only so I could dub if I had any spare time, like weekends, and then couldn't do that, either.

Thanks and best,

In the next, I'll be sending the Kissinger India-Pak. backgrounding that Goldwater put in the Congressional Record. The Post printed it this a.m.
