Dear Js，
As you will realize，there is no urgency in this note。 It is aprt or a means by which I am trying to work my way out of a depression covered in onc，osures I resune that，in the course of time you＇Il read．It leaves me in a state of mind in wich I think I＇d better not do any writing or editing．（I have，as a matter of fact，sompletec the reading of the second of the two earlier parts of PFI and Lil has completed the typing of the 3rd．）

If we could enjoy the kuxury of enemies only，no＂friends＂！
Pirst，what I hope will please you：Lil has been working away at the blanket．I do not know how you will react，but she has about $6^{\prime \prime}$ of it done and I think it is attractive， in the colors and in the stitch．She had used a different stitch in this one and a different yarn，one that is machine washable．The final apearance if of herringbone．The purpose it to make it ravel－proof．The extra effect it to almost double the thickness，which is a fine think in a blanket that is to do more than decorate。 ind not long ago，she showod me her worked－out design．＂Jenifer＂will be a single lines，as will 10 April 1971 （my stepfather＇s boethday，two days aft r wine，six before Iil＇s）．She has thencharacter worked out to scale and has overcome the problem of the slant in the letters where the stitch gives a small square effoct．We are both enjoying this．But the toughest part lies ahead for her．She＇ll enjoy that most，because it is a bit tougher．

The other things is this：do you know anything about the＇Gi Dail Wews＂Endicate thaat makes it worse than what I would assune about any？A（nice）reporter fron the CDIN was here two days ago and through Him I＇m making a couple of pitches．If I do not expect success， there is always the romote chance that lightening will otrike。

I have the USHOWR 10／11 on the CIA／Marchetti，if you get that，thankso
I $t$ ink that the tree things bugr ing me most today are the failure of the deferal fink not only to cone but not to let ie know he wasn＇t until mid－morning；the inheresnt danger of Cyril＇s poorly－kept secret；and the unpleasantness of having to go to my bank int less than an hour and bed indulgence when a crooked bastard of a publishers owes me more than thrice what I am due to pay the bank Sunday，which means today；and an insurance company owes me twice that。 I had，in fact，expected to use these finds to pay next year＇s entire interest and not have that to worry about and put what $\mathrm{L}_{\mathrm{j}} \mathrm{l}$ considered the minimum we ${ }^{1}$ d need for minirnum subsistence for the next four－sox ionths aside（she can keep it aside，too， thank God）and to put the rest on princip画．This should have taken care or this year＇s loverdue）and next＇s，for we can probably just make do on what Lil will make beginning in $2 \frac{1}{2}$ months and lasting three of this six．

I＇m sure you both feel better than I do！
