X 8/28/72 The subtle TV line that SEAsia is JFK's war was on the CBS TV a.m. news today, the introduction to the longest sequence in it, a review of old war film by Frances Fitzgerald (Fire in the Lake) with Nelson Benton. There are sequences opening this showing the beginning of the war to be the time of LBJ's visit as JFK's v.p., more of LBJ and Diem than was necessary for making even this fraudulent point. They even included parade sequences, some of now-pointless motorecades into the countryside, etc. One purpose alone is served, unless Republican dis-identification is another, despite its beginning under the Republicans and the current Nixonian barbarities.
