HW:

The attached three clippings might find a place in your EMK file. Lyn Nofziger, the subject of the Evans & Novak column, was sent to California to run the Nixon campaign under Reagan a couple of weeks or so after the column appeared. His influence apparently shows up in the second clipping in Reggan's attack on Ted. Unfortunately the story on Nofziger's transfer to California is buried somewhere in the still-unclipped papers. When we get to it we'll resurrect it and send you a copy. And we thought it was interesting that Arthur Krock, who is not usually given to fantasizing, should supply the third clipping to indicate the latent potential of a Ted draft.

Apologies for cutting this up and pasting it when you asked for it to be returned. But we wanted to make a copy and pasting was the least wasteful way of doing it.

In one of your last mailings you sent a copy of an excellent ~~edit~~ letter to the editor entitled "New JFK Death Doubts Arise" and signed by one Howard Roffman of Philadelphia. It appears to be from the Inquirer of 1/17.72 but we can't be sure of the paper since the only indication appears to be a capital I. Pls confirm, tnx. jdw 3feb73
