

2/26/ Left for town unexpectedly,
didn't think to address new envelope
before sealing one mailed this p.m., but I think I should continue the numbering system. I think this is 6. If the postmark on the preceding one is unclear, it is the one with the long and painful answer to Howard's confidential memo and the letter to IRS with the clippings they sent (a new federal service!) instead of what I'd asked for, so you'd not copy those when you get to the N.O. papers. This is a kind of discovery proceeding no lawyer of whom I know has yet tumbled to. However, I want it for the book I've started. Christenberry is looking more and more interesting. Wish I had a young researcher available to look up his Congressional record. Martha's latest outburst will have some kids with a new poster and campaign soon, "Liberate Martha" in some variant. Perhaps another "Remember the Watergate" (scene of one of the heavier tearbassings - two friends hospitalized)...I've gotten some bugging clips I've not yet had a chance to look at. I'll include the Star in case it interests you (told their reporting best) in the list and the Times. Better do it now and not forget:

NYT Szulc 6/21 Star (3 stories)
" 6/99 " 2

Also Daily News 19

Rowan column other subject 21, also unread. In fact, when I read these, if they seem like what will interest you, I'll send. Because of the names I know from the past, I've gotten to make separate cards for it looks like the papers are downplaying too much and even the "liberals" on TV joking. Whether Martha's "dirty doings" and "cops and robbers" blast will change doubtful as I see I have three Duartes (look-alike of Fiorini), two in connections with munitions before success revolution I think, or right after, one in connection alleged $240,000 heist. I expect no answer from Williams and I felt I had to remind him who I am. No new word N.O. One of IRS stories claims Bailey claims to have results independent investigation to offer. But shrewdest to me is contrast in Christenberry, no halt of printing affidavits, but halt on anti-government press! And broad hint that confirms my analysis of what PG really engineered, that the government may drop case! If misconduct. No criminal charges, mind you, just drop. The Place of Justice Is a Hallowed Place, so it says on pediment. Hallowed, like in Hallowed E'en. Jim Eason phoned while I was making the list. He wants to go into it and I said I'd rather wait until I know more. He agreed. He is moving and gave me a new way of getting messages he doesn't get. I'd phoned and left word for him and Harve day story broke. Neither got. Great news operation there. They didn't even know Harv's name. But the more I think of it the more I think a Fiorini bit would do the job Jim wants and be entertaining. Farout. I'd have to check the McManey stuff in O in NO. When you write, please tell me the name of the best-known Frisco dept store so I can change the phrase from "They Couldn't even take Burdines" that I used. Supper time. My purpose in sending you the long painful letters is not to burden but to have an independent set elsewhere and to inform if you want to read and so you can criticize if you disagree and are so disposed and have time. Best, HW
