9/12-Today's Post has about 3 pp of obits, recollections of Khrushchev that I will want for TIGER. I've read what began on p. 1 and will the rest during work intermissions. If you have interest and would like to borrow, let me know. If you save what NYT has, I'd like to borrow and copy anything I think I can use. If I get out today, I may buy Times for this, although it costs a lot for me. We've just had about 6" rain, but it seems to be about ended. H

Re-arranging file of your letters, now too fat for one folder, came across this. As you see, one's marked ~~to~~ so I'd remember when I got to the Times with Kh obits, etc., but it made no impression on what little mind I had at the time, since we were then on that dreadful schedule. But we do have some clippings on the Kh book, 7 Nov 70 through 13 Mar 71: 13 NYTimes, 3 SFChron, 2 SFEx, 1 Saturday Review. Have no need for them and if you have, let us know. If you don't want them let us know that, too, because in that case we can throw them out.

Some of them mention Victor ~~Lewis~~ Louis.

No, marks in ltr you see anything bearing on genuineness.
