

I'll be clipping the post on the harrisburg trial if you should later want it. they may have what the times may not, what the wire does not carry, probably more than the wires, but we get the bulldog, so i also may not have all the post prints they have betty medsker covering it. you may remember she is one of those who filed the prison suit of which i sent you a copy. some of her stuff has been very good, but some of her attitudes are strange. for today, hers is a much better than average kind of copy. and the part of the city room where she has an office with 5 others (religion) has a nice colorful sign above the door reading smersh. should this be a story of any special interest to you, at least for the beginning i have a good friend and vy. good reporter there, ian mc donald of the london times. as of now my chief interests are in the hoover and hoover fink angles. for poss. writing, that is. unless there is some

JAN 28 1972

is something truly exceptional by way of an exclusive, do not go to trouble of copying times. if i see something that looks like it is of real interest, i can always ask .H