6/29/72 Jane Fonda was on the Today show for the last half-hour this morning. Lil called me in time for me to catch all of it. I affirm that this is a sexist ~~society~~ society with serious discrimination against men! No mere man could have gotten away with what she did. She was really great, responsible with it, to the point and persuasive. I don't think any President has ever been described on network TV to so large an audience. With all that has been said on the subject of VN and what is relevant, she was fresh and new, with things I've never heard said. H

Friends FBI- Je's note attached to return my clip enough to tell me you have file, so don't copy any of it and I can always ask if the need develops.
