

3/12-Tiring after reading the JER letter ans. enclosed, I suppose because of what ~~success~~ success can mean in more phytical drain and time from other things, I sat down to the Service pieces and a half-glass of wine. It was relaxing, I'm glad to have read the,, and after ~~Lil~~ ~~does, they'll~~ make the rounds. I think she will envy Mrs. S, getting those pants. She finds this kind of clothing quite comfortable. Last night we went to the home of a frien for dinner and so that Lil could get more of his chaotic records for his tax returns (delinquent, natch!), an and she again wore hers. I find myself wondering if JSS was debriefed on his return and if so by the CIA.
When I met Felix Greene some years ago he said he had been but so incompetently he had had to take over its direction (!). Have you realized that Oswald was never, according to the existing records, every debrief-ed by anyone? Is the conclusion not obvious? If it isn't, wait for AGENT OSWALD. Glad to get. Tnx, HW
