Priscilla brings up an angle

here I've not seen before, put in quite this way.

If you mean the only way Nixon could make it, that was in COUP, as it was with LBJ in intro PhotoWW, whence Garrison cribbed (Must tell you that precious story of him sometime!) If you mean the headlined, "Too Soon To Love Again" with Gore on same thing attached, I'd neither seen nor thought of before. I don't buy it, tho There are Priscilla stories for you too when, as I hope will happen, we are again together. Her present situation is that George, her errant husband, is still alcoholic, still sneaks p

NYT 10/15/72, "Nixon Role in Coast Land Deal Unclear." This is ok for my needs, thanks. I think there are possibilities author, Wallace if you need a better copy we'll give it another try.

Turner, did not consider. They have added to F Preep story, but not what they could have. One I think obvious flaw is talking to Ehrlichman only when the President is reped by Kalmbach in personal matters. This tells me that Dean will be unhappier than I'd expected when he got my FOI request re this. I have trouble understanding this kind of NYT journalism. It had to know of other permanent improvement

Not a single dupe! Glad I misunderstood on the indictment. Quite a story in it by itself.

TIME: The computers haven't straightened out yet.

Only one issue didn't get here. Save for that, to the last one did. But as I suppose I said, I didn't say I want

TIME, did say I don't, so I get it.

'Tain't nawthin! Today we got an order from one of the largest book wholesalers in the country, Baker & Taylor. Rather last night, when Lil's ma was here. They are still writing us at Hyattstown, we've written them perhaps 50 times, beginning before we moved. At the Amer. Booksellers' Assn. convention in June I spoke to them, and nothing corrects an address so often corrected and now more than five years out of date. The P.O. forwards for two years only. We've gotten around that by getting them to deliver mail to me c/o mom, who is 80+. How long? She readdresses, and the deliver. So, they handled each piece of mail that many extra times instead of simply forwarding. Ordnung muss sein!

phone calls in when drunk and she's not there, the most recent of which I know about two weeks ago to Carol Pepper, James Ray's sister. She wrote me about it. She was not home. He blabbed incoherently to her 10-year old son....Disagree with her on emotions and EMK. I think fear is his deterrent and that there would now or later be a transfer of this love to him, less so to Shriver, but surely some to him, too. Seems like PJ has not completely abandoned her idea of a book on Marina, although Harpers seem to have. HW 11/11/72

besides this wall. I knew that the Secret Service had paid for a new heating system for his security! That is more far out than a wall, which can be justified. Hence my request for info on all taxpayer-paid permanent improvements. This may be even hairier than I'd thought...If not in a letter, then verbally I discussed Nixon's personal integrity and funding with the Post rather early in its WG work, but to no avail. Glad to have this, not picked up elsewhere of which I know. HW

We're trying to be selective so that ^{NOV 10 1972} this won't get completely out of hand, in particular eliminating anything based on Washington Post stuff. Also things quoting Time magazine. Are you still getting it? Asking because you said you'd missed a copy - just one, or was it discontinued when the computer woke up and realized what it had been doing in its sleep? 27

Hope I have enough room left on this scrap to thank you for the copies of the grand jury charges and the list of those making depositions - all I had innocently asked for was a little list of the names! But delighted to have ~~it~~ the copies. Also want to thank you for the Bruce Biassat column in the Frederick Post 13 Oct 72 giving changes in Nixon's campaign schedule - the dates correlate deliciously with (so "delicious" isn't the correct word, but it expresses what I feel) with the dates with ^{of} the on/off peace talks.
