

phone calls in when drunk and she's not there, the most recent of which I know about two weeks ago to Carol Pepper, James Ray's sister. She wrote me about it. She was not home. He blabbed incoherently to her 10-year old son....Disagree with her on emotions and EMK. I think fear is his deterrent and that there would now or later be a transfer of this love to him, less so to Shriver, but surely some to him, too. Seems like PJ has not completely abandoned her idea of a book on Marina, although Harpers seem to have. HW 11/11/72

besides this wall. I knew that the Secret Service had paid for a new heating system for his security! That is more farout than a wall, which can be justified. Hence my request for info on all taxpayer-paid permanent improvements. This may be even hairier than I'd thought...If not in a letter, then verbally I discussed Nixon's personal integrity and funding with the Post rather early in its WG work, but to no avail. Glad to have this, not picked up elsewhere of which I know. HW

We're trying to be selective so that <sup>NOV 4 1972</sup> this won't get completely out of hand, in particular eliminating anything based on Washington Post stuff. Also things quoting Time magazine. Are you still getting it? Asking because you said you'd missed a copy - just one, or was it discontinued when the computer woke up and realized what it had been doing in its sleep? 27

Hope I have enough room left on this scrap to thank you for the copies of the grand jury charges and the list of those making depositions - all I had innocently asked for was a little list of the names! But delighted to have ~~it~~ the copies. Also want to thank you for the Bruce Biostat column in the Frederick Post 13 Oct 72 giving changes in Nixon's campaign schedule - the dates correlate deliciously with (so "delicious" isn't the correct word, but it expresses what I feel) with the dates with <sup>of</sup> the on/off peace talks.
