Most Watergate stuff appearing here recently has been based on Washington Post stories which we presume you've seen, so this is just the tip of the iceberg. Many thanks again for the fine stuff you've been sending from the Post.

My concern has been that I'm sending you too much, but my feeling has been that when the present time pressures are such I can't read the SEAsia stories and the Post is so heavily its own reporting, I'd best let the two of you pass judgement on whether you want to read to keep or both. If it is a load, sorry. But especially with the passing of time I find that going over something old I see what I do not recall seeing first reading. Sending some of these clips has been easy because when possible I'm getting the extra copy for you. Forgot this a.m. when I took Lil in for school because of the extra stops I had to make. If they still have Posts* I'll get, although the one story of interest is bjo on Segreth. Other wire service. Less than on wire. WBEM during early a.m. had story of Ill Repub leader used in anti-Muskie sabotage elsewhere in midwest, not in Post today. The Post has developed a special machismo on its-WG coverage, which is as bad as it is good. H
