

9/2-Yesterday's Anderson column, which I presume you have seen, on Nixon's plan to end the war, a real one, according to Anderson, is in my view a telling argument FOR Lil's theory that he is a secret Nixon minion, for whatever reasons. H

9/4/72 Today's Anderson column is devoted entirely to Nixon-Cuba, not traditional Labor-Day material and not a really good column, considering his representations of all the secrets given him. The possibility that this was a CIA feed is fairly good and the timing rather conspicuous. I'm beginning to develop a funny feeling about Anderson and his avoidance of this story so natural for him, in part because of his involvement with Fiorini which, if I know this kind of Cuban, could lead to other involvements he could find embarrassing. His standing forth for Fiorini could have been a human gesture, a humane one too, but are there not other possibilities? H

9/4 Reur mixed metaphor of 8/26, some of the "junk" did contain "crumbs". Welcome for future munching/crunching/salvage. I think the deparation re Caper on which we agree if reflected in Mitchell's voice on the cassette I'm sending and in some of acts already noted since 26th.

JW, LF 9/4/72 As I try to clean desk I find note reading, "Janus-wife Miami trip 9:40 p.m. Chi time 9/1". Ref to WBBM broadcast, not sure but think Alan Bickley reading news, with a Janus story being read when I turned set on. Referred to reward $5,000, Peking man, etc. If any thing appeared in papers, not here. My recollection is that there was reference to some casts being made, possible leads or fakes. Sorry I'm not set up as well for instant taping as for instant analysis. I keep a small, worn-out set tuned to 780, which is daytimer all-news Washington and gives me nighttime reception, Castro (same frequency), weather permitting on BBM, also 780 kc. There may have been nothing new in this b'cast. HW

s-i 8/19 Morgan story inserted three graphs not in AP copy and eliminated two at end compared with Miami Herald story 8/20. Haven't compared other versions.

If Stoner finished 5th in primary, there must have been four other candidates. Foreman proposed that black former judge as local counsel, Ray agreed, and Foreman dropped it there.

Note Shore's repeated statement "not now on White House staff or in the government", which means once on WH staff and in the govt. He alone has put it this way. Last night, this a.m. The others have, in effect, gone out of their way to protect WH and Repubs.

I had this heavy paper in mill for another purpose, making a footnote for addition to a page of PM, when I stopped for news, so I added this reminder I now don't need. FYI, however, in all the radio and TV reporting of Nixon's press conference of last week, Shore is the one reporter to give any interpretation, analysis, translation of whatever you might call it. If there is an exception in what I recall of the printed press, it doesn't come to mind. H 9/4.
