In Watergate memos you mention interview of Barker (by Walter Rugaber, NYTimes 12 Sep 72) but we're uncertain whether you have it. If you haven't, and want it, let us know and we'll copy.

Je

Thanks, I do have it. If I haven't sent a memo on it I forgot or I didn't get to it. I find it rather remarkable that all the front work is done by the Times. This is but another example. That is, except what some do on TV, like making patriots of crooks and robbers and assorted-law violators. I just haven't been able to note as much as I'd like and I fear I'll forget some - if I ever have use for it. Missed Larry O'Brien on CBS TV a.m. news today. I got up early to write Guy Johnson and forgot to turn the set on because we were leaving early. I'm truly sorry because O'B was made and genuinely indignant, on this subject, and that is what it and the campaign both need. It is just too artificial to handle such filthy, rotten things cool. That may be one of the reasons it hasn't really taken hold. So, I missed all but his last few words. Doubt they repeated them, but we left just a bit after 7.
