

There is much to copy from today's WxPost, which does have its WG story in the early edition, despite electronic news blackout until 11:30 p.m. last night. There is a 2 col. piece by Edward Walsh "Tracing Role Of White House in Watergate". It has nothing new in it. I'll send copy if you think you want. APR 21 1973

Same for Robert Maynard's "Cautious Columnists", 2 ed¹³ pg cols except for cartoon. He spends 1st 1/4 on role of columnists, at al "ippmann, then says they failed. Of 400 columns the Post carried to election days, only 12 on WG, 5 by Evans-^Hovack on or mentioning. I will enclose lead editorial. Note that it was written without knowledge of the major story, or they got that late. Kraft's column I presume you have locally.

Big story? BY 11 a.m. no mention on CBS net radio news, no highlight for next 25 mins on Wash Post's own all-news radio station. HW 4/19/73
