

For some time I have wondered if CBS' Hotelet is merely a nasty guy with an angle of his own. Lil regards him as a secret right-winger. Watching him on Face the Nation (Dayan) today made me wonder again if he serves some master other than CBS. I am without doubt that on this show, as in earlier broadcasts, he has managed to serve other interests. My purpose in this note is to alert you so you can ask yourself this question as you hear him the future. If the thought has not already suggested itself to you. HW 12/9/83
