There's a minor, probably unimportant, discrepancy in McCord's birthday (s). In his testimony 18may73 he said he was born in 1924 [no more precise date given] in Waurika, Okla. There is ~~a~~ such a place, a small town a few miles above the Texas border northwest of Wichita Falls. He offered to detail his educational background but the questioner quickly said don't bother and he went on to detail his service with the FBI, CIA etc.

A 29mar73 NYTimes story by R.W. Apple on McCord says that "When he was arrested on June 16 (17?) McCord told police he was born Oct. 9, 1918. He did not give the place. Later, bail bond records indicated he was born July 26, 1924....." Again no place given. Apple mentions reports about Washington that both McCord and his wife were rumored to be Baylor graduates, but says the university says he never attended there. You'll recall that his questioner remarked 18may73 that he was a graduate of two universities. They may have named them, I don't recall but think they did not. In any case, enough floundering has taken place that I wonder if he has assumed someone else's ID. The 1918 birthdate could have come from the false ID he was carrying at the Watergate jaw 20may73
