We do not have any literature describing the purposes and activities of the Veterans of Strategic Services other than the statement of its objects as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation which is as follows:

Article II.

Objects

Section 1. This Chapter is formed to preserve and defend the Constitution and the laws of the United States; to preserve and foster the spirit of fellowship among those who served in the Office of Strategic Services and in its predecessor, the Office of the Coordinator of Information, and to provide an organization through which they may unite in fraternal bonds of comradeship; to render such aid as may be possible to all former members of the Office of Strategic Services and the Office of the Goordinator of Information, as well as their widows and orphans; to preserve the traditions, memories and incidents of the Office of Strategic Services and the Office of the Coordinator of Information; to hold sacred the history and memory of the members of the organization who have given their lives to their country.

Section 1. The Chapter shall not be used for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office or preferment.

ARTICLE III

Periodically we have social gatherings of the organization for good fellowship and to be enlightened by a speaker worth listening to usually on some problem of strategic interest to the U.S.
